FRIEND ADVISED ITS USE

Says She Thought She Had Bronchial Trouble for All Time

"I have been bothered for years with a bronchial trouble that was very annoying and it looked as if I had it for all time," says Mrs. Horton, who lives at 705 Third Avenue, South, Nashville, Tenn. In her statement given a short time ago, she said: "I had tried everything that I knew of or could hear of, and yet I had not found the remedy until Mrs. Cordie Vester advised me to take Lung-Vita, which I did. And I am proud to say that this medicine removed the cause and consequently the bronchial trouble. I feel brand-new and appreciate having taken such a medicine. I recommend it to other people."

BROWNSVILLE.

A most enjoyable affair was that of the birthday dinner given by Mrs. Jennie Reese in honor of her husband, Mr. Hugh Reese. Mr. Reese spent the long routine of business coming but was ignorant of the fact of what this gathering meant until he saw the baskets. Then he remembered 'twas the 28th of April which marked his fortieth anniversary. It was but a short while till we were enjoying those wholesome eatables each basket contained. A four course menu was served. Those present aside from the family were Mrs. Fannie Smith Lettrich from Kentucky, Mr. Leonard Smith from Lynchburg, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bailey of Mulberry, Mrs. Nannie M. Reese Bonner of Fayetteville was also out mingling with home folks. We pray that Mr. Reese and wife will live long and enjoy many more happy days as the 28th of April, 1918.

OUT OF TOWN NOTES

AVONDALE.

We are doing time here in Avondale. Some of our soldier boys left Monday morning for the camps. We don't know just where they are to camp. Quite a number of people accompanied them to the station to bid them Godspeed and Farewell. They left jolly and in good spirit. They said they were going and get old Kaiser and were coming back to Tennessee. Miss Emma Grizzard and Mr. Johnnie Andrew Reasonover united in holy wedlock Sunday at the home of the bride, Mr. Square Saunders (white) officiated. The wedding took place at 3 o'clock p. m. The attendants were relatives and a number of friends who witnessed the ceremony. The bride wore a poplin costume with hat to harmonize and her flowers were a bouquet of roses, violets and lilies of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Reasonover left Sunday evening for their future home in Nashville. Both have a host of friends to be interested in their wedding. We wish them a long and happy life on the sea of matrimony.

SHELBYVILLE.

The central event of the week was the leaving of the soldier boys for the training camps. Saturday afternoon a farewell meeting was held at the court house. Rev. A. Ransom presided and made the introductory speech. Rev. E. F. Gooch made the principal address. The kits were presented by Miss S. O. Brown. Lieut. Hurrell Tillman on being introduced received an ovation. He is now at home on a furlough. Mr. Tillman is a graduate of Tuskegee and has just graduated from the officers' training camp, being one of the seventeen colored men who made the necessary grade. He bears the rank of second lieutenant. Mr. Tillman's address was the feature of the evening. He gave an interesting account of life at the camp and gave much wholesome advice to the boys, as well as some very practical advice to those who remain at home. The boys were banqueted Saturday night at the M. E. Church, where there was provided a feast of reason as well as many good things to eat. While there was not as much enthusiasm as on the first occasion, still the boys were cheerful and were eager for the fray. A large number accompanied the boys to Wartrace and bid them long and sad farewells. The following is a roster of the boys who left: Robert Peebles, Ellis Ray, Myrtle Woods, William Burdette, Ben Greer, Albert Rankin, Wm. Cowan, Charlie Webb, Russell McClellan, Jas. Claybourne, Clyde Short, Frank Gardner, Gill, Horace Smith, Nixon, Hunter, Edgar Whitesides, Chas. Henderson, Clarence Terry, Clarence Parker, Lillard Webb, Wayman Taylor, Will Hart, Horace Blakemore, Fred Dean. The funeral of Sgt. A. W. Ray was held at the A. M. E. Church conducted by Rev. W. A. Smith. Sergeant Ray was one of the three colored men in the United States who holds the position of conductor on Pullman. Telegrams were read from the citizens and lodges of So. St. Marie, Mich., where he was well and favorably known. Bishop Lee was here and delivered some instructive lectures and sermons. Mrs. L. J. Johnson has returned to Turner. Hon. W. T. Ver non, Rev. A. P. Gray and Rev. A. E. Hardy were in attendance at the trustee meeting of Turner. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hutton have finally decided not to remain in Shelbyville. They will locate in Chattanooga. Mrs. Emma Cartwright is rebuilding her house which was recently destroyed by fire. The building was amply insured, a tribute to the business sagacity of the owner. Mr. Thomas Claybourne spent a few days here to see his brother off for the training camp. Mrs. Sallie Hunter Hannah, of Winchester, came over to bid her son, Nixon, good bye. Mrs. Clay Peppers, who came home sick from Nashville, is reported better at this writing. The McAdams High School will open early in July. It will have a service flag for three of its graduates who will join the colors. Mr. Sherman Willis has returned from Camp Meade, having been honorably discharged. Dr. F. W. Gardner held quarterly conference at Woodfork Monday night. A pleasant quarter is reported. Mr. Frank Gardner and Mr. Mack Whitesides connected themselves with Woodfork Chapel Sunday. The principal news next week will be by Woodfork Chapel.

LEWISBURG NOTES.

The largest crowd of colored people ever known to meet here gathered at the First Baptist Church last Sunday night. The occasion was a grand banquet given to twenty-two colored soldier boys who left here for the camps. The people came into our town from several miles around. Before it was dark the house was crowded with both white and colored. The house was called to order by Prof. H. G. Allen, master of ceremonies, who, in a few well chosen and biting words, stated the object of the meeting, after which the great crowd stood and sang "The Star Spangled Banner." At the close of the song Rev. E. M. Smith offered prayer. "America" was then sung, followed by a most excellent paper by Mrs. E. M. Smith, teacher of primary department in our city school. Thurston Orr then sang a song, followed by a very able address by Rev. W. H. Ogletoun, pastor of the A. M. E. Church here. Then a quartet composed of the following persons sang: Mildred Davis, Thurston Orr, Caldwell Smith and Paul Davis. This was followed by an address by Rev. E. M. Smith, which was enjoyed by all. Next a solo by Miss Marie Orr. Song "Keep the home fires burning" by the choir, followed by a few appropriate remarks by Dr. J. C. Watson. A song entitled "Mr. Wilson's Call" was sung by four characters. One of the leading addresses was made by Mr. Jimmie J. Murray, one of the leading white citizens of our town, who was present and called upon by the master of ceremonies. Mrs. Gladie M. Hurt was the pianist for the occasion and Mrs. Etta Davis conducted the singing department and much credit is due her for the success of the occasion. When the program was completed, a great feast was given to the soldier boys. This was managed in such an attractive and tasteful manner that the boys forgot for the present that they had been called to military service. A collection was taken for Red Cross purposes. The result was $25. The public school building here is alive with songs, rehearsals, etc., getting ready for commencement week. Cordie Allen has been elected salutatorian and Amos Smiley, valedictorian, for the class completing the Eighth Grade. Indications are that we are going to have one of the best singing weeks in the history of the school. The soldier boys left today for the camps. Health has improved in our town. Each soldier boy was presented a Bible by Rev. E. M. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist Church here.

FAYETTEVILLE.

Another call from Uncle Sam from Fayetteville for drafted colored men was on April 27th. A grand reception was given to the boys at Mr. Joe Todd's cafe on April 27th. Some able addresses were made to the boys at the A. M. E. Church on Sunday, April 28th. Prof. G. T. Hall, principal of the city high school, gave a wholesome lecture to them at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church on last Sunday night. Prof. Hall spoke of the Negro as a soldier in the Revolutionary War to the Battle of San Diego in the Spanish-American War. We enjoyed the lecture that was rendered by Mrs. J. Clark Cary at the A. M. E. Church on Sunday evening to the soldier boys. Mrs. Cary was eloquent. Her thoughts were beautiful and unsurpassed in logic. Mr. E. C. Brownard (white) was the speaker of the day. He was introduced by Rev. Stewart (white). Mr. Brownard said he did not like the word drafted; he said he preferred the word elected. Mr. Kinath Moore of Martin, Tenn., the son of Mrs. Willie Wiggins, of 2828 Walnut street, St. Louis, Mo., will visit Fayetteville May 11th. He will be the guest of Mr. N. M. Rhame, 410 W. Maple street. Mr. Moore has accepted a position in the culinary department of the N. C. and St. L. R. R. Company, has also paid in advance for the Globe to be sent to his mother in St. Louis. Mr. Moore is an active young man and his future seems promising. Indeed, Prof. T. W. Hampton will speak at the court house in Fayetteville on May 6th at 2 p. m. He will speak in the interest of the Thrift Stamp. Both white and black are cordially invited to hear this able orator. Miss Ida (Booker) Prothro of Winchester visited Fayetteville a few days ago. Mrs. Prothro was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Willie Wilson. She reports a pleasant stay. Call again, Mrs. Prothro. Mrs. Hattie Yokely of Chattanooga is visiting Fayetteville this week. She is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Brown. Mrs. Rose Emma Carter has become a reader of the Globe. She paid her subscription in advance. We hope others will do likewise. Miss Lida Carter died on the 14th. Miss Carter died suddenly. She was seen on the street about an hour before she died. Her funeral was attended by Rev. Bishop. Burial at Rose Hill. Mr. Tiele Wright was called to Camp Meade, Md., but became ill on the eve of his departure and was released. We were glad to have Miss Sallie Woodard with us again. Miss Woodard has been traveling very extensively in the West for the past few years. She was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Mary Woodard. Miss Woodard left on the 29th for Chicago, Ill., her present home. Mrs. Joe Todd of 115 W. College street, has subscribed for the Globe and paid for it. The Crankshank Hospital is an honor to the Negro race. It is furnished with the latest modern fixtures. Dr. Crankshank is one of the leading physicians of Fayetteville, regardless of color. We bid him Godspeed. The following are on the sick list this week: Mr. William White and Mr. Henry Dismukes. Mr. Morgan Simmons returned from Cleveland, O., a few days ago on account of being ill. Mr. Simmons was reared near Fayetteville and is a promising young man. We hope for him a speedy recovery. Rev. Blackman preached a series of sermons in Fayetteville which were commendable. Rev. Blackman is a gospel preacher. We hope to hear him again. Mr. Green Cunningham of Howell, Tenn., has purchased a handsome auto. Mr. S. B. Brooks of South Pittsburg passed through this week en route to his camp at Columbus, N. M., Mexican Border. He has been in Uncle Sam's service more than five years, and is well known in Nashville as he was a student there. Mr. L. Tharpe of Camden, Tenn., has joined the Globe readers. Mr. Harvey Clark played his part well singing last Sunday at the speaking for our soldier boys.

McMINNVILLE.

The ladies of the Warren County Comfort League entertained the second quota of drafted men on Sunday afternoon at Clark Chapel M. E. Church. A patriotic program was rendered. Prof. J. E. Wood was master of ceremonies. The church was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting. A number of addresses were made, among them were Mrs. J. M. Cunningham (white), of the Red Cross, and Mrs. Peers, the County Demonstrator of Food Conservation and Canning Clubs. Short addresses were made by Rev. J. A. Moore and Rev. Boddy. Each member of the draft was presented with a Comfort Kit and a Testament. After the exercises an elaborate dinner of several courses was served to the drafted men. The remains of Mr. John Wood, who died Thursday in Pueblo, Colo., of pneumonia, reached here Monday at noon, accompanied by his wife and son. The body was taken in charge by an undertaker and conveyed to the family home at Increase, four miles from town. He was the son of Mrs. Mary

Wood and leaves the following brothers: Prof. J. E. Wood, of this place; Messrs. George, Will and Lawrence of Increase; Ross, of Chicago; James Y. and Carroll of Chattanooga. The funeral services were held Tuesday at the Increase Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. J. S. Nance, who was assisted by Revs. Belcher and Moore, after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery near by. The city schools were closed Monday and Tuesday out of respect to his principles. Prof. J. E. Wood, who was a brother of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. James Y. Wood and daughter, Miss Lucile, of Chattanooga, came Monday to attend the funeral, returning Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Meredith G. Ferguson, who has just completed a course in the Officers' Training School at Camp Meade, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in the city the guest of Miss Jessie L. Gwynn. He was en route to his home in Nashville. The many friends of Mr. Ferguson who knew him at State Normal were glad to see him looking so well; it seems camp life agrees with him. He made an interesting lecture to the pupils of the city school on Wednesday morning, subject, "Camp Life." Mr. Ferguson was much entertained during his brief stay here.

CUMBERLAND FURNACE.

Mr. Gilbert McCurdy died April 15. He had been critically ill for some time but bore his suffering patiently until the end. He was a strong Christian man. He would say while talking, "I am just waiting on the Lord; that he wasn't afraid of death; that he had been preparing for forty years." He was a member of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church and was a faithful member, always willing and ready to give advice. He was known all through the country; he was loved by both colored and white. Rev. J. A. Standfield attended his funeral, Wednesday, April 18th. He was laid to rest at the cemetery. He leaves behind six daughters, two sons, thirty-six grandchildren who, with other relatives and a host of friends, mourn their loss. Though gone he will not be forgotten. We mourn his loss, but God's will be done. A chain has been broken in the ranks and the link which has fallen out cannot be replaced. Sleep, brother, we hope to meet you in that kingdom you've so often spoken of, where parting is no more. May God protect the deceased from ill and may we prepare to meet him when they never say goodbye. Mr. Charlie McCurdy left Thursday evening for his home in Indianapolis, Ind. Some of our boys left for Camp Meade, Maryland. Several left Monday. Among them were Mr. Jesse Allen Standfield, Robert Lee, Mr. Freeman Brown, Mrs. Rebecca Geron in ill this week. We are glad to see Mrs. F. E. Moriana able to be out again. Rev. S. P. McDonald and wife, Sister A. D. and Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Stone were the evening guests of Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Carter Sunday. Misses Hattie McDonald and Irene Hopson were the guests of Misses Ethel and Adella Carter. Mrs. Essie Stone is able to be out. Mrs. Celia Cooksey was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Carter. Mrs. Parthena Gray, Mrs. Phyllis Bowen and Mrs. Katherine Jones were the guests of Mrs. Rebecca Geron. Rev. Wm. Carter, Mr. J. T. Larkins made a flying trip to Dickson Thursday night. The Sunday schools are progressing nicely. Rev. Murray preached Wednesday night at the hall. Come one, come all. Mr. Gordon Larkins and Mr. C. W. Overton left for Charlotte Saturday. If you want to keep posted read the Globe, the Negro paper.

HENNING.

Mr. J. C. Fisher has returned from Terre Haute, Ind., where he went a few days ago to answer a call from the local board, as he by chance was there when the registration was last April. Visiting his uncle, George Reeves, forty-seven years of age, drafted and twenty-seven years of age, leave Lauderdale County at this call. Mrs. L. M. Reeves was on the sick list this week. The following were Sunday visitors in the Reeves home: Mrs. Katherine Lake, mother of Mrs. Reeves; Mrs. Elora Sims and Mrs. Annie Taylor, daughters of Mrs. Reeves; Mrs. Mary Langster and Mrs. Mabel Green. Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzpatrick were very much surprised by a visit of three very charming young ladies from Covington in the persons of Misses Son-tonia Johnson, a cousin of Mrs. Fitzpatrick, and Rosa Applewhite, Fitzpatrick and Dolly Bess Walk, two sisters. Mrs. Cynthia Palmer left Saturday for Jackson to attend the graduation of her daughter, Miss Bertha G. Palmer. Mr. W. E. Palmer expects to join wife and daughter on Thursday at Lane College. Mr. M. T. Towles expects to open Sunday school in short at the Holt school house. Children who do not attend Sunday school in Henning should be proud of this grand opportunity.

GALLATIN.

Mrs. Charly Howell of Greater Nashville was a visitor in our city last week. Mr. William Anderson, who has been spending some time in Hot Springs, Ark., where he has been employed, is at home with his father this week. Mr. Abigail Anthony of Scottsville, Ky., was in Gallatin last week en route to Louisville, Ky. At 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday the life of James S. Randolph passed into the great beyond. He was about 59 years of age and died at his home in Gallatin. He was only been ill for about three weeks and his death came as a great shock to many of his friends. He leaves a wife and four daughters, one sister and four brothers. He was a brother of the late Mack Randolph, one of the pioneers of this county and one of the most prosperous of ours in this city. During his career he owned many fine race horses of the blue blood stock, and bears the distinction of operating the first cab service in this city. The funeral was conducted at Key Chapel M. E. Chapel by Revs. J. D. Davis, Peter Vertrees and Price. Burial followed at Gallatin Cemetery. Mr. Wesley Winston was in Greater Nashville last week. Mr. Johnnie Wright of Wright's Just Right Orchestra of Fondlake, Wis., is at home visiting homefolks and friends. Mr. Wm. Fite of Hendersonville was here last week to attend the funeral of Mr. James Randolph. Mrs. Ralph Hall of Kokomo, Ind., arrived here last Monday morning, being called to the bedside of her sister, who is very seriously ill. News reaches us that Mr. Mibus Randolph, formerly of this place but now a resident of Chicago, is now employed in the Government Custom House. The pay-as-you-enter system for your papers used to be a common feature of the entertainment given at Immortal Hall last Friday night proved somewhat unpleasant for some. The crowd was larger than the committee had anticipated and the refreshments became exhausted before all were served. Well, that was all right, but the partially shown in serving was the unpleasant feature. The second call for the draft boys of Sumner County came on last Monday at seven o'clock. The boys were ready and reported for duty. Nine were to go to Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., and twenty-three were to go to Camp Meade, Md., at noon. Bob Tinsley in charge of the boys for Camp Lee and Vaughn Gillespie in charge of the boys for Camp Meade called their men to order forming them two by two in front of the court house. Then the march began to the station headed by Senator Brackin of Sumner and Reuben Harris, carrying two large American flags floating in the breeze followed by Ottitt's Jazz Band which played patriotic melodies. The Red Cross auxiliary was well represented with appropriate banners, one of which the writer would like to call your special attention to which asks the question as follows: "What Have you done to help the boys who are now in the trenches and those who are soon to go?" Col. J. B. Malone in his speech at the station was right when he said, "Patriotism is ablaze. The colored boys from old Sumner are going to France to fight for victory and win victory. They are not afraid of the Kaiser's guns. They are going to sustain their reputation that they have made in all other battles from Crispus Attacks down to the scrumming in Mexico at Carrizal, where Mexican soil was crimson with our precious blood. Mr. Roger Lyons of Indianapolis, Ind., was here circulating among friends. A Thrift Stamp costs only 25 cents. How many have you bought? The officers and members of the social clubs at Peach Valley, namely, the Blue Ribbon Club and Community Club, together with other friends and relatives of the two boys, Eugene Wiley and Henry Johnson, who are to leave for camp Monday, gave an entertainment at their church Thursday night, April 25. Very touching Scriptural discourses were given by Revs. Eugene Wiley and Jeff Scott, after which some encouraging remarks were given by Rev. Henry Cantrell. A social followed and refreshments were served.

BELL BUCKLE.

The services at each church were splendid and largely attended. At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Mr. Paty spoke to the boys who were to leave Monday for Camp Meade. Every one enjoyed his talk. He spoke at the A. M. E. Church. Mr. Paty is now serving Uncle Sam. Mrs. Marcus Scruggs, Mrs. Dock Ashley, spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Early Smith and Mrs. Henry Nelson. Mr. Robert Cooper and Mrs. Ella Hawkins are improving. Miss Bell and Mrs. Mary Kizer spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Lina Miller. Mrs. Adams is out again. Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hoover entertained at dinner Sunday, Rev. Henderson, Rev. Wooden, Rev. Hawkins and Mrs. Annie Davis. Miss Roberta King spent Monday in Nashville attending the funeral of her uncle. Mrs. Mary Tillman, Mrs. Luke Nelson and daughter visited the bedside of Robert Cooper, Friday. Miss Fannie Fugitt spent several days in Gallatin, visiting relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ray, Mrs. Fugitt attended the funeral of Col. Ray. Mrs. King also, Mrs. Eotta Wells has joined the Globe circle. Read the Globe and keep posted.

COLUMBIA.

Sunday, April 28th will long be remembered by the people of Columbia and Maury County. The occasion was a patriotic meeting and bid a last farewell to the drafted boys who were to leave next morning. Long before the appointed hour, streams of people could be seen coming in every direction and the court room was soon filled to overflowing. The patriotic colored women of the city planned this demonstration. Mrs. C. O. Hunter was chosen chairman and presided throughout the evening. The choir composed of voices from the various churches of the city, was at its best and the enthusiastic way in which the patriotic airs were sung will long be remembered. Preceding the speaker for the occasion, Miss Croghan of the State Normal, who was present, was asked to give a selection. She gave a reading from Paul Lawrence Dunbar, "The Colored Soldier," which was received with deafening applause. Dr. C. O. Hunter then introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. A. N. Johnson of Nashville. Mr. Johnson has lost none of his enthusiasm and sound judgment in presenting a cause and before the close of the meeting citizens felt more keenly the gravity of the situation and more determined to do their part well. At the close of the address, Mrs. B. F. Davis, representing the Volunteer Knitting Club, assisted by Little Miss Juanita Morrell, presented the men with thirty-five Comfort Kits and in well chosen words, gave a brief report of the good work done by the club for the boys who had gone before. The boys were then escorted to Odd Fellows Hall, where a committee with Mrs. Dora Perkins as chairman, served a most elaborate banquet. Prof. T. A. Frierson of Nashville, spent the week-end here. He was accompanied back home by Mrs. Frierson, who had been here two weeks at the bedside of her father. Mr. John Brown of Detroit, Mich., arrived last week, having been called on account of the serious illness of his father, Mr. Richard Brown. Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Jones and Miss Croghan of the State Normal motored through from Nashville, Sunday, April 28th. They were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Hunter, for dinner. Through the Knitting Club, each of the thirty-five drafted men were provided with a well filled kit, which were presented to them at the demonstration at the Court House last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. B. F. Davis, Vice President of the
